

1 | ENHANCED EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Workshops and Seminars

Tailored programs on new treatments, focusing on real-world applications and challenges.

Online Modules

Flexible e-learning opportunities for busy practitioners.

Specialist-led Training

Collaborations between specialists and GPs to share expertise and improve mutual understanding.

2 | STREAMLINED ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Centralised Portals

Integrate clinical trial data, safety information, and prescribing guidelines in one location.

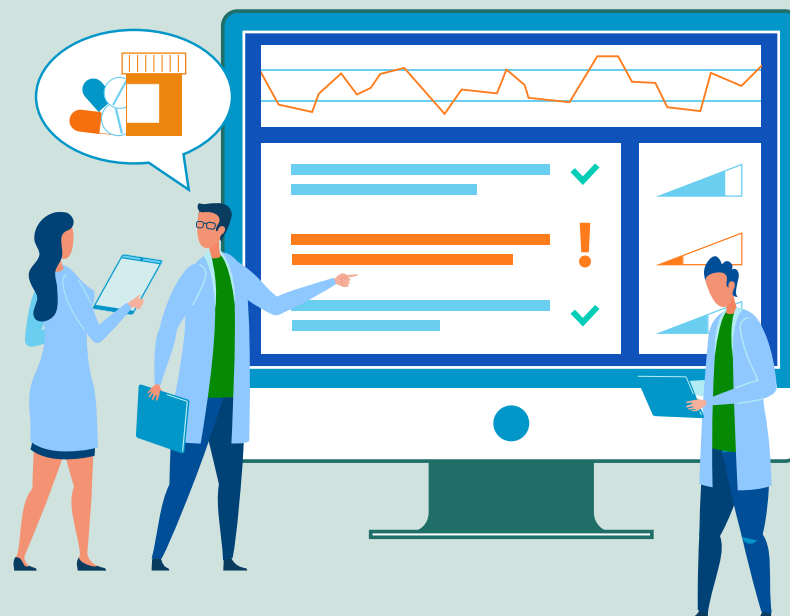

Mobile Applications

On-the-go resources for quick reference during consultations.

Summarised Evidence

Concise summaries of the latest research tailored to the needs of GPs and specialists.

INSIGHTS FROM GPs AND SPECIALISTS ON IMPROVING PRESCRIBING PRACTICES

IMPROVED COMMUNICATION CHANNELS | 3

Peer Networking Platforms

For GPs and specialists to discuss cases and share experiences.

Feedback Mechanisms

Channels for healthcare professionals to provide input on treatment guidelines.

Patient Communication Tools

Resources to support shared decision-making between doctors and patients.

SUPPORT FOR IMPLEMENTATION CHALLENGES | 4

Cost Transparency

Clear information on the financial implications of new treatments.

Administrative Simplification

Reducing the paperwork burden associated with prescribing.

Formulary Integration

Streamlined processes for including new treatments in local formularies.

